

Copenhagen 2008 promises to be a very significant leader's conference as we press forward together.

For a few years now we have gathered as leaders together from various nations across Northern Europe, and are seeing relationships form and emerging strategies, ministries and apostolic teams develop.

Hearts are being joined across more and more nations including some from a wider area than Northern Europe - God has exciting plans for his church: Friends together on a mission - committed to making a diligent attempt to build local church on New Testament principles in every nation where God leads and guides us.

One of the features each year has been new faces joining us. We value highly relationships and seek to retain the special atmosphere we've enjoyed in recent years. I am confident, with God's help, this year will be another great conference.

I warmly invite you to come and join together with other men and women involved in local church leadership and let's see what God does amongst us.

With much love in Christ,

Mike Betts

A Newfrontiers leaders conference

Programme

Copenhagen provides a truly wonderful and special setting for our Leaders Conference. We believe as we gather together in Copenhagen this October it will prove to be a key strategic gathering. We aim to spend time building relationships as well as key teaching sessions aimed at equipping and encouraging us all as we face the task of bringing leadership into our various settings. We also want to invest time worshipping God together and waiting upon him for his presence and activity amongst us. Fresh mission opportunities are opening up before us, we shall hear together how we can help make progress for the gospel across more and more nations. We can do more together than we can on our own.

As we see God develop things across more nations in Northern Europe and wider afield, we aim to provide a welcoming environment for all those we find God adding.

Some who will gather with us are pioneering into new nations, some will be seeking to expand what God has established in local church life, for still others attending, the conference will help them explore what it means to connect to apostolic ministry amongst the Newfrontiers family of churches.

Bookings for the conference can be made by contacting David Bjerre by post or e-mail at the addresses given. We have increased our capacity for this year again but spaces may be limited so hurry to avoid disappointment. Please help the administration of the conference by booking before 1st September.

The 2007 Northern Europe conference was my first and it was memorable for a number of reasons. However, it is the warmth, friendship and sense of togetherness that has firmly stayed with me.. friends on a mission together!

Booking form

The great news this year is that, per person, the conference will cost only DKr 300 (£30 or €40) (including coffee and refreshments). Please book your place with David Bjerre and he will send details of how to pay with more information about the conference.

You will need to book your own accommodation (3 nights). You may find many good deals but we also have two particular recommendations: Firstly, www.zleephotels.dk which has an assortment of rooms - or we have a special deal for delegates who book direct at Danhostel City before 1September, (copenhagencity@danhostel.dk or call +45 3318 8332) giving reference 108223 - the conference rate here means you pay only DKr 255 (£26 or €35) per person per night in shared rooms with 4 or 6 beds, including breakfast (more info from www.danhostel.dk/copenhagencity)
